Rev. John Casper Stoever's Record of Baptisms and Marriages from 1730 to 1779.

PREFATORY.

For a translation of the Baptismal and Marriage records of one of the earliest divines of the Lutheran church in Pennsylvania, we are indebted to the Rev. F. J. F. Schantz, D. D., of Myers-town, Pa., who in forwarding it writes: "The original Record of Baptisms and Marriages of Rev. Johann Casper Stoever, containing also a sketch of his life, is in the possession of W. C. Stoever, Esq., Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, Pa., a son of the late Prof. M. L. Stoever, LL. D., of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa. With his permission, at the request of Rev. H. E. Jacobs, D. D., LL. D., of the Theological Seminary at Mt. Airy, Pa., a copy of the record was made to be preserved in the archives of the Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania, &c. This translation of the record and permission for publication were secured also by the kind consent of Mr. Stoever. The original record of Johann Casper Stoever was written in German and contains many Latin phrases as well as a few English and French. The spelling of names of localities is generally given as in the original record. The biography of Johann Casper Stoever is given in the original record after the entries of the birth and baptism of his own children, and is placed in this publication at the beginning for convenient reference. As will be seen in a foot note added to the biography, Johann Casper Stoever, sr., and Johann Casper Stoever, jr., arrived in Pennsylvania on September 11th, 1728. The former labored in Spottsylvania, Va., and the latter in Pennsylvania, extending his labors to Virginia, as will be noticed in the record of his baptisms and marriages furnished for publication.

BIOGRAPHY.

Johann Casper Stoever, father of the children named above (in the record of baptisms), was born December 21st, 1707, in a place named Luedorff, in Solinger Amt, Duchy Berg, in Unter Pfaltz. His parents were Johann Caspar Stoever (a native of Frankenburg in Hesse and Gertraudt (family name not given), born in Amt Solingen. When he was six years of age he learned to read German perfectly in four weeks under his father's direction. After this he also commenced to study Latin under his father. Subsequently he received private instruction in Latin and Greek from four pastors successively named, H. Nicolaus Muentz, H. Samuel Bratschisch, H. Valentine Kraft and H. Antonius Pfaffman, and later in the languages named, as also in Hebrew and French, and likewise in theology from H. Knabel and finally from H. Special (Superintendent) Adolph Ruchfeld at Brunnath, three hours (twelve miles), from Strassburg. Journeyed from Europe to America in 1728 on the Rhine and on an ocean vessel, preaching on Sundays. Arrived in Pennsylvania Sept. 29th and continued to preach; ordained on April 8th, 1733, by Christian Schultz, p. t. pastor in Philadelphia, and was married at the same time to Maria Catarina. They became the parents of the above named children (eleven named in record of baptisms.) His wife was born May 14th, 1715, at Lambesheim in Chur Pfaltz. Her sponsor was Catarina Ursula Schmidt. Her parents were Christian Merckling and his wife Catarina, nee Brucher.

November 24, 1778—Whilst I am writing this cursum vitae, my age is by the grace and help of God 70 years, 10 months, 1 week and five days.

In the original record the following was added in a different handwriting:

His full age—71 years, 4 months 3 weeks and 2 days.

Rev. Johann Casper Stoever died at his residence, west of Lebanon, Pa., May 13th, 1779, and was buried at Hill Church, north of west of Lebanon, Pa.—F. J. F. S.

September 29th is no doubt an error of memory at his advanced age. According to "Pennsylvania Archives, second series, vol. xvii, p. 15" and "Rupp's Collection of 30,000 names of Immigrants" no vessel arrived with immigrants in 1728, after September 11th, on which day the ship, James Goodwill, David Crocket, master, from Rotterdam, and the qualification of its passengers are reported. Among the names of its passengers are those of "Johann Casper Stoever, Missionaire," and "Johann Casper Stoever, S. S. Theol. Stud." (see Rupp's Collection, page 58.) "Johann Casper Steffer, sr., and Johann Casper Steffer, jr., (see Pennsylvania Archives, second series, vol. xvii, page 15.) In the State Library at Harrisburg, Pa., I saw the paper containing the names of foreigners who arrived September 11th, 1728. In this list are found the names "Johan Casper Steffer, sr., and Johan Casper Steffer, jr." Before the name of "Johan Casper Steffer, jr., "Minr." is written, Johann Casper Stoever, sr., labored 1733 as a minister in Spottsylvania, Va., went to Europe 1737, and died on board the vessel on his attempted return to America. (See Halle reports, new edition, 1886, page 686.) The record of baptisms and marriages given in this book is that of Johann Casper Stoever, jr.—F. J. F. S.
